

The end of the army's biggest "blimp." A striking photo of the C-2 in flames, after an explosion at Brooks Field, San Antonio. Seven of the officers and men aboard her barely escaped with their lives. Kadel & Herbert.

Mrs. William Steele Gray, Jr., the former Miss A. Margaret Dunlop, in her bridal costume after the ceremony at St. Thomas's Church. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Enrico Caruso, widow of the famous tenor, reading to her daughter, Gloria, from the Caruso biography. Wide World.

Settling the map of Europe—Commissioners representing Rumania, Japan, France, Serbia, Italy, Great Britain and Hungary at the stake marking the new meeting point of the Rumanian, Hungarian and Serbian frontiers. Underwood & Underwood.

The King and Queen of England unveiling a Scottish memorial to King Edward VII. at Edinburgh. Photo shows the King and Queen with Lord Provost Hutchinson after the dedication ceremony. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

The new president of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, Mr. John Benson, who was elected at the annual convention in New York recently.

Holder of the new world's airplane record, Lieut. R. L. Maughan, U. S. Army pilot, who traveled at the rate of 248.5 miles an hour in a speed test at Mount Clemens. General Photographic Service.

"how does she keep

HER CHILDREN'S CLOTHES looking so FRESH and DAINTY?"

There is no longer any trouble to keep your children's dainty clothes looking fresh, with a soft, cool, pliable finish.

Starch with Linit, the remarkable new starch discovery.

Even the most ordinary cotton fabrics, when starched with Linit, look and feel like expensive linen.

Don't envy the neat appearance of you neighbor's children.

Starch with Linit! On sale at all grocers.

CORN PRODUCTS REFINING CO., NEW YORK
Makers of the Famous Argo and Duryeas' Starches

LINIT

for PERFECT STARCHING

